This report presents information on penalty charge notices (PCNs) referred to the Traffic Penalty Tribunal for the period of 1st April 2012 to 31st March 2013. These statistics include a breakdown of all councils, year on year comparisons, Welsh council statistics and bus lane appeal statistics.

New councils

During this period 15 new councils commenced Civil Parking Enforcement and 5 new councils commenced Civil Bus Lane Enforcement.

Appeals

The number of parking PCNs referred to the tribunal has reduced by 2.5% to 16,257 whilst the number of bus lane PCNs referred to the tribunal has dropped by 18% to 2740*. Appeals relating to Welsh councils dropped 15% to 647.

The number of appeals against parking PCNs allowed by the adjudicators (including those not contested by the council) has remained static at 52%.

The number of appeals against bus lane PCNs allowed by the adjudicators (including those not contested by the council) reduced from 64% in 2011/12 to 45% in 2012/13*.

Welsh parking appeals allowed by the adjudicators (including those not contested by the council) have remained static at 51%.

PCNs

Parking PCNs issued by councils in 2012/13 have reduced by around 0.1% to 4,314,038 however when we remove councils which began enforcement during this period and compare like with like with the previous year, the decrease is around 2.5%.

The number of Bus Lane PCNs issued has risen by 5.2% to 554,772 however over 80,000 (15%) of these PCNs have been issued by the 5 councils new to bus lane enforcement during this period.

The number of PCNs issued by Welsh councils increased by 1.3% to 187,009.

*In 2011/12 547 bus lane PCNs were referred to the Tribunal in relation to Hertfordshire council. In the majority of these cases the tribunal found in favour of the appellant (or the council did not contest the case). Subsequently the council ceased enforcement and refunded all PCNs issued relating to this bus lane.

YEAR ON YEAR

In the year ending March 2013 a total of 18,997 PCNs were referred to the tribunal. This includes both parking and bus lane cases*.

*there are no bus lane appeals before 2006

TYPES OF HEARING

The tribunal operates three hearing types; without a hearing (where the adjudicator considers only documents submitted in advance without the attendance of the parties), telephone hearings and face to face hearings. The chart below sets out the proportion of appeals by type. (Figures below exclude cases not contested by councils or withdrawn by appellants.)
